AFFAIRS OF THE RAILWAYS.

Convention Rates to Be Fixed by Western Lines This Week. CHICAGO, May 11 .- A call has been issued for a meeting of the Western Lines Passenger Association on Thursday of next week. The business to come before the meeting is the fixing of rates for a number of the most important conventions of the year. It is probable that the rates granted for the meeting of the National Educational Society in Denver in July will be reconsidered. The committee having in charge the drafting of an agreement for the proposed transcontinenetal passenger association met this morning and worked steadily throughout the day. No hitch or snarl was developed, and the work progressed rapidly. It is believed that the agreement can be submitted within a week if everything goes as smoothly as to-day. The Burlington has given notice of its intended withdrawal from the local passenger association at Denver. No reason has been given for the withdrawal. One story is that the Burlington has taken this action for the purpose of forcing the Union Pacific into an ironclad agreement on Western passenger business. The most probable theory is, however, that the step was taken as an economic measure. It is announced, however, that the Burlington intends no action detrimental to the interests of the lines which are still members of the Denver local agreement.

Formal Opening of the Interstate Drill Witnessed by 3,000 People.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 11.-Despite the chilly, threatening weather, the crowd at Montgomery Park, this afternoon, to witness the formal opening of the interstate drill numbered upward of 3,000 people, a large majority of whom were ladies. Their enthusiasm for the sturdy sons of Mars was hearty and demonstrative. The feature of the opening ceremonies was the presentation of the various companies to their sponsors. After the troops had been called to dress parade shortly after 3 Polock, the sponsors, with their chaperons and maids, representing the best society of the city, were driven in gaily decorated carriages to positions in front of their respective companies, where the presentation occurred, and the colors were delivered to the sponsors. Then followed a parade around the grounds, the companies forming in the following order: Major General R. B. Snowden and Col. W. H. Kellogg, U. S. A., and their staffs; the Iowa State Band, two companies of the Fifth Infantry, United States regulars, from Fort McPherson; Company A, Confederate Veterans Union; the veteran Chickasaw Guards, of Memphis, who for years held the honors as the best drilled company in the cou try; the Washington Fencibles, the holders of the Galveston cup, making a fine appearance in their neat black fatigue uniforms; the Chickasaw Guards and the Governor's Guards, who will represent this city in the Guards, who will represent this city in the competitive drill; the McCarthy Light Guards, of Little Rock; the Tourston Guards, of Omaha; the Neely Zous es, of Memphis; The Sealy Rifles, of Galveston; the Morton Cadets, of Washington; Battery E. First Regiment, Light Artillery, Ohio National Guard, and Companies D and K. Third Cavalry, U. S. A. The afternoon's exercises were concluded with a brief drill at 6 o'clock, participated in by all the comat 6 o'clock, participated in by all the companies at the grounds. This evening a larg crowd enjoyed a concert programme by the Iowa State Band. Camp Schofield presents an animated scene to-night. #### PUNISHED FOR CONTEMPT.

Dispensary Constable Fined and Sent to Jail for Seizing Liquor.

CHARLESTON, S. C., May 11.-Dispensary Constable E. C. Beach to-day seized two gallons of liquor in the hands of L. R. Byrd. The latter had just taken it from the express office and made affidavit that it was imported from Savannah. Immediately afterwards Beach was brought before United States Circuit Judge Simonton, who issued a rule ordering him to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt of court in violating the injunction issued by him against dispensary constables interfering with imported liquors, and so infringing the interstate-commerce statutes. Shortly before 3 o'clock the case was heard, and on motion of B. A. Haygood, Byrd's attorney, Beach was fined $300. He declined to pay it and was sent to jail. It is un-derstood that the State authorities will institute habeas corpus proceedings in United States Supreme Court for Beach's release, making the affair a test case in the hope of having the injunction dissolved.

HE PASSES AWAY IN MAINE, FAR FROM HIS FAMILY CIRCLE.

An Attack of Erysipelas, First Noted Two Weeks Ago, Eventually Resulted in His Death.

HE WAS IN REVIVAL WORK

HIS CAREER IN THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH AND IN INDIANA POLITICS.

One Time Commander of the Indiana G. A. R.-His Race Against C. C. Matson for Congress.

A telegram was received yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Chase at her home in Irvington informing her that her husband, ex-Governor Ira J. Chase, had died in Lubec, Me., at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, In view of the letters that had been received in the last few days and other telegrams that were received during the morning the news was not altogether unexpected. His death was caused by erysipelas, with which he was attacked two weeks ago last Friday. Mrs. Chase has received letters every day from Rev. Harry Minnick, the minister in charge of the church at which Mr. Chase was holding a revival meeting, apprising her of his condition. At first the letters were full of hope, for, in fact, there was little in the disease to indicate any serious results. He was first attacked, on the eve of his departure for nome, with a slight pain behind his ear, and as it increased, his trip to Boston physician who was called in pronounced it a case of erysipelas, although it was not at that time looked upon as a serious case, For a time the disease seemed to yield to treatment. It spread down his face and neck and seemed to decrease in intensity. and he seemed to be on the road to recovery, when the disease suddenly took a turn for the worse and continued to increase until death resulted. Rev. Mr. Minnick was telegraphed yesterday to have the body embalmed and shipped to this city. The time of its arrival is not yet known, but it will probably be shipped to-day, in which case it would probably arrive here Tuesday night or Wednesday morning. The arrangements for the funeral and the selection of the place of burial have not yet been made, and will not be until to-morrow. It is thought that Mr. Chase left full instructions as to his funeral among his papers and they will be searched to-morrow so his wishes can be carried out if any in-

In 1888 Mr. Chase was elected Lieutenant Governor on the Republican ticket at the time of the election of Governor Hovey. He served in the capacity of President of the Senate in 1889 and 1891. His administration was uneventful so far as anything out of the routine order of affairs in the Governor's office is concerned. In 1892 he was renominated by the Republicans for Governor, and was defeated by Claude Matthews in the general change that took place all over the country that year. During his term as Governor Mr. Chase did not give up his church work.

HIS MINISTERIAL WORK. Since Mr. Chase retired from the office of Governor he has been actively engaged in evangelical work for the Christian Church. His services have been much in demand, and it has been impossible for him to fulfill all the engagements which have been thrust upon him. He was plain, forcible speaker who held the atmade him a popular worker in the evangelical field. His calls were not confined to this State. It was only recently that he spent over a month in Des Moines and other Iowa towns and then was forced to leave the State for other fields of labor much against the wishes of the church workers of the State. He was so popular in this line of work that his engagements often dated six months ahead. He attended the recent State G. A. R. meeting in Muncie and went from there to Lubec, Me., where he had established a church about twenty years ago, to conduct a revival meeting, and was to have preached in Boston two weeks ago to-day, but was prevented by his fatal attack of

The ex-Governor was a familiar figure at Irvington, where he took up his residence after leaving the gubernatorial chair. His wife, who has been an invalid for several vears, survives him, together with a married daughter, living in Texas; a son and daughter, Frank and Electa, who are at nome, the one in the freshman year at Butler and the other in the Kindergarten Training School in Indianapolis.

Mr. Chase was one of the most earnest and hardest workers among the ministers of the Christian Church. Even while he was Governor, from 1891 to January, 1893, naving succeeded to the office upon the death of Governor Hovey, he frequently appeared in pulpits, sometimes preaching twice on Sunday. In his views of the questions at issue in the Christian Church Mr. Chase was strongly opposed to Professor Garvin, on the ground that his teachings were not in harmony with the majority of the teachers of the church. Rev. D. R. Lucas, of Indianapolis, was a life long friend of Mr. Chase, and will take entire charge of the funeral. The burial will probably be at Crown Hill, although the family burying ground is near Chicago. Ira J. Chase was born in Rockport, Mon-roe county, New York, Dec. 7, 1834. His father, Benjamin C. Chase, was one of the farmers of that county. Mr. Chase received his early education in the schools at Milan, native State, and completed it at the seminary at Medina. When twenty years of age his parents left New York and moved to Cook county. Illinois. At that time Chicago was not more than a good sized village and its streets were made of the mud composing the soil of that part of the State. The elder Chase continued his agricultural pursuits and kept his two sons, of which the late Governor was the younger, busy on the farm. Dur-ing the year of 1861 Ira J. Chase secured a position to teach in a neighboring school Soon before the war broke out he married Miss Rhoda I. Castle, of Cook county. He enlisted in Company C, Nineteenth Illinois Regiment, in 1861, and attained the rank of sergeant. While his regiment was in none of the famous battles of the civil war, it traveled nearly four thousand miles through the States of Missouri, Kentucky, Tennessee and Alabama. It was his regiment that went through the famous bridge at Mitchell. Ind., when Company C. Nineteenth Hilnois. was lost almost to a man. Mr. Chase's health began to fail in 1863 and, without making any application, he was honorably discharged. At the time he was in Nashville, where his wife spent three months in Mr. Chase and wife removed to Cook county in 1867, where he again attempted farming, but his health would not permit.

caring for him. He abandoned the idea and, after studying theology, he was appointed to a charge at Mishawaka. His appointments were then as follows: LaPorte, 1867; Pittsburg, Pa., 1869; Peoria, Ill., 1871; Wabash, 1889, and from 1884 until he was elected Lieutenant Governor, Danville. He had been prominent in State evangelical work since his campaign egainst Matson for Congress. His G. A. R. record was one of prominence. He was a charter member of the John H. Emmet Post, of Wabash, and in 1886 was elected department chaptain by acclamation. In 1887 he was elected department commander over five competiurs, re-ceiving 124 more votes on the first ballot than all the rest combined In 1888 he was again elected department chaplain.

To show Mr. Chase's popularity it may be mentioned that when he ran for Congress in the Fifth district against C. C. Matson he reduced the Democratic majority from 1,600 to 528.

GOVERNOR MATTHEWS'S ESTIMATE. Though Opponents for Governor, Their Relations Were Very Friendly. Governor Matthews was informed last night by a Journal reporter of the decease of his predecessor, Ira J. Chase. He expressed regret at the sad news and spoke sympathetically of the family whose bereavement comes with sickness preventing the presence of any of them at the bedside of the husband and father. "Governor Chase had many good traits," said Governor Matthews. "He was a patriotic man, honest in all his intentions Our relations when he was Governor and I was Secretary of State were very pleas-ant, and during the campaign when we were opposing candidates, there was nothing to mar our very friendly relations. I

Ex-Governor Porter's Tribute. "I am surprised and shocked to hear of the death of ex-Governor Chase," said ex-Governor Porter last night, when apprised of the fact by telephone. "I lament the occurrence, and sympathize deeply with his family. The fact that none of the mem-bers of his family were at his bedside will make their grief more poignant. I knew very little of Governor Chase in private life, but at all times found him polite and courteous. He had a great many friends. During his official life he was attentive to his duty and was always pleasant and Gen. Harrison Expresses Sympathy. General Harrison was notified by telephone yesterday afternoon of the death of Mr. Chase. He was much surprised and pained to hear the news. He expressed his deep sympathy for the family and sorrow at hearing of the deatn of Mr. Chase.

The News at Wabash.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WABASH, Ind., May 11 .- The death of ex-Governor Ira J. Chase, which occurred to-day, came as a profound shock to the people of Wabash, of whom he was one and although the rejection yesterday of for several years. From 1880 to 1883 Mr. Paragraph 111 hopelessly emasculated the Chase was pastor of the Christian Church in this city and endeared himself to the congregation. DUESTROW IS SANE.

The St. Louis Doctor Will Be Tried for Killing His Wife and Child.

UNION, Mo., May 11.-The jury to-day, which for the past week has been hearing the insanity case of Dr. Arthur Duestrow, the millionaire of this city, who, in February, 1894, shot and killed his wife and child in cold blood, found him sane. This is the second time the case has been tried, the first trial resulting in a disagreement. Duestrow, who pleaded insanity to escape the consequences of his crime, will now be tried on the charge of murder. There were verdict was rendered and consequently very little excitement. Dr. Duestrow appeared antly when the verdict became known.

"Are you glad?" he was asked. "Yes, I am," he answered. "This nonsense is over now.' Governor Johnson, who is Duestrow's attorney, came in just at that moment and was asked by his client in an insolent manner: "Have you got anything to say to me"
"I will see you later," said the Governor, as he turned away. After the jury had been discharged Judge Hirzel and the attorneys of both sides decided on July 26 as the time for the trial of Duestrow on the charge of murering his wife and child. Duestrow will be returned to the jail in St. Louis to-morrow. Governor Johnson will have him watched, he says, for the prisoner has threatened to kill himself if not released altogether.

THROUGH A BRIDGE.

Serious Railway Wreck on the Wheeling & Lake Eric Road.

MASSILLON, O., May. 11-A cloudburst in this section late last night washed out a number of bridges on the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling and the Wheeling & Lake Erie railways, swelling rivulets to rivers and inundating the low lands. People in will be heavy. The Wheeling & Lake Erie wrecking train left Massillon to go to Dalwest of town a bridge had been washed away, leaving only the unsupportable track and ties. The train plunged into the water below with all on board. George R. Gibson, trainmaster, is missing and is supposed to be buried under the wreck. The injured are: Superintendent J. F. Stout, arm broken; J. N. Merwin, clerk, head cut; fireman Taylor, caught in the wreckage and cannot be extricated. He is still alive. A brakeman whose name is unknown, had a leg

Mr. Carruthers says the wheat is all used by Ontario millers. Now that it has been pretty well demonstrated that United States wheat can pay the duty of 15 cents a bushel and seil in the same market with the Ontario product, dealers are inclined to believe that prices for the atter have reached the top, unless the United States market shows material advances. As high as 85 cents has been paid for Ontario red winter wheat recently, and 80 cents for hard Manitoba wheat at Fort

ELOPEMENT AND MARRIAGE.

General McNulta's Son and Ex-Congressman Scott's Daughter Wedded.

DECATUR, Ill., May 11.-Donald Mc-Nulta, son of Gen. John C. McNulta, of Chicago, and Miss Henrietta L. Scott, daughter of ex-Congressman Owen Scott, of Bloomington, were married in Decatur, dan, pastor of the Baptist Church. It was a runaway match, the clergyman being pledged to secrecy by the groom, but the facts concerning the affair leaked out today. General McNulta was bitterly opposed to the wedding. Donald McNuita had been a student at the Illinois Wesleyan University at Bloomington, and for a year has been devoted to the lady Dr. Seaman and Mrs. Lane Held. DETROIT, Mich., May 11.-The examina-tion of Dr. Seaman and Mrs. Alice Lane, who are charged with causing the death of Emma Hall, was begun to-day. Undertaker Gibbs testified to having taken Miss Hall's body from the Lane hospital at midnight. Jennie Wilson, a former inmate of Mrs. Lane's hospital, told of the circumstances of Emma Hall's arrival there and gave evidence that she came there by previous arrangement with the Rev. Jonathan Bell. Both respondents were held for trial

HIS ANTI-REVOLUTION BILL KILLED BY THE REICHSTAG.

First Stabbed in a Vital Place, Then Dismembered and Finally Kicked Out of the House.

FEATURES OF THE DEBATE

EMPEROR WILLIAM'S MINISTERS CRITICISED BY SEVERAL MEMBERS.

Discussion at Last Abandoned and the Unpopular Measure Rejected by Paragraphs-The Emperor's Plans.

(Copyrighted, 1895, by the Associated Press.) BERLIN, May 11 .- In view of the rejection yesterday by the Reichstag of Paragraph 111 of the anti-revolution bill, which practically sealed the fate of that measure. nobody was surprised when the Reichstag to-day, after rejecting Paragraph 112, refused to further discuss the bill, and all its amendments were withdrawn. Then the entire bill, paragraph by paragraph, was rerected without debate and the Reichstag

Though the rejection of the anti-revolution bill did not surprise anybody who has followed the popular agitation against it, and although the rejection yesterday of bill, the discussion of the other sections was expected to drag along for a time, as the measure, although a continuance of the debate only promised further humiliation for the government. Therefore the coupe de grace administered to the unpopular bill to-day was a relief to all concerned. The most interesting speech during the discussion was that of Herr Groeber, which showed that the Center party was irritated against the government on account of its management of the bill. He said that Herr Von Koeller, the Prussian Minister of the Interior, apparently regarded the Reichstag as an automatic machine, into which bills were put in order to be pulled out as laws on the other side. The utterances of Herr Von Koeller in support of the bill he asserted only put weapons in the hands of the Socialists. Herr Groeber then proceeded to protest against the dictatorial attitude assumed by Dr. Schoenstedt, the Prussian Minister of Justice, toward the Center party and declared that the party would decline further responsibility for the measure. Dr. Schoenstedt replied in a speech which only served to further embitter matters and to leave the government at loggerheads with the Center party. The proceedings were somewhat enlivened by the remarks of Dr. Sigl, editor of the Bayarian Katterland, and whose anti-Prussian utterances have earned him the nickname of the "Prussian eater." Dr. Sigl humorously criticised the bill and the Ministers' speeches, He declared that Herr Von Koeller's speech was an insult to the Reichstag, but he was interrupted by the president, Herr Von Buoi-Berlberg, who remarked that it was the president's business to rebuke insults to the House. Herr Von Koeller, amid general laughter, ostentatiously applauded Dr. Sigl as the latter returned A BRIEF DEBATE.

Upon resuming business to-day the Reichstag proceeded to discuss paragraph 112 of the anti-revolution bill. The Minister of War, General Bronzart von Schellendorf, declared that he could well understand the Socialist antagonism to the army, which, he declared, was a solid wall against which it was useless for the Socialists to run their heads. Nevertheless, he continued, socialthat the paragraph was intended.

Herr Bebel, Socialist, replied that the ruling circles evidently wished to provoke the Social Democracy to acts of violence in order to crush it by military force, but, he added the Socialists did not intend to be en-

The Minister of War warmly repudiated Herr Bebel's allegations and quoted an article from the Vorwaerts, the Socialist organ, suggesting that he, the Minister of War, ought to be shot like a mad dog. Herr Asann, National Liberal, Count Von Kardof, Free Conservative, and Herr Von Levetzowthen announced on behalf of their respective parties that they would follow General Bronsart von Schellendor in supporting the government on paragraph 112 against the committee amendments. division was called for and paragraps 112, as drafted by the government, was fejected, the Conservatives, Imperialists and National Liberals voting in the minority. The same paragraph, as amended in committee, was then put to a vote and was also rejected, the Centrists alone support-Herr Von Richter, the leader of the People's party, then remarked: "Let us now make short work of the bill; let us abandon further debate so that by a succession of divisions we may quickly rid the world of the whole thing.

The words of Herr Richter were greeted with much laughter and his advice was forthwith acted upon. Amid much excitement the various amendments were formally withdrawn and a curious scene ensued The majority, in the gayest of spirits, rejected each paragraph as it was put from the Chair. When the last paragraph was disposed of the anti-Semites and the members of the Left cheered boisterously and the sitting was adjourned a mid intense ex-citement until Monday, when the discussion upon the customs convention with Australia and the tobaco tax will be tak-

There was much discussion in political circles to-night at the unexpected denougment and the effect it is likely to have on the Emperor. The general belief ex-pressed is that the Minister of the Interior, Herr Von Koeller, must fall with the anti-revolution bill. MODIFIED BILL TO BE PRESENTED. The Bundesrath convened promptly at the Reichstag Building, Prince Hohenlohe presiding. At 10 o'clock to-night the Bundesrath was in session. The correspondent of the Associated Press to-night heard a report emanating from semi-official sources to the effect that despite the rumors current in the lobby it is still possible that a modification of the anti-revolution bill will be introduced at an early date. In any event it is almost certain that the Reichstag will not dissolve. Rumor has it that the government is apprehensive that in the present state of the temper of the people elections would result favorably. Herr Richter, the Radical leader, prophesies another crushing defeat for the government next week when the tobacco bill is up for action. The entire Socialist party is elated over the defeat of the anti-revolution bill. Mass meetings are being held in many places to-night and many are the jubilant speeches that are being made. Emperor William received hourly reports today of the proceedings in the Reichstag. He has made a statement to the effect that, acting upon the advice of Prince Hohenohe, he will not interfere personally to bring about any results more in keeping with the wishes of the government leaders. The fact that Prince Hohenlohe did not make a speech after the defeat of the anti-revolution bill in the Reichstag to-day has created considerable surprise. However, this attitude only conforms with his ecent position on this measure. Addressing Herr Bronhart after the final vote had been taken on the anti-revolution bill, he said: "Better thus than that the committee bill had been defeated."

The changed plans of the Emperor respecting his summer pleasure excursion at was originally his intention to take a trip to Norway) have caused a great deal of
